

Alma "Dickie" Lee Moore

May 1, 1941 - August 8, 2023

Mrs. Alma Lee Moore was born in Rockwood, Tennessee on May 1, 1941, to the union of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce and Helen Martin. As a child, she acquired the nickname "Dickie" and it stayed with her through adulthood.

Alma was educated in the Roane County School System. Alma was united in holy matrimony with William "Bill" Moore in 1977. She was a devoted wife until his passing. Alma was a devoted and loving member of Line Creek Baptist Church for many years where she was loved for her kind and helpful spirit as well as her amazing cooking. Alma touched the hearts of many as she traveled her journey here on earth. She had many skills including creating beautiful decorations, cooking, and writing heart-warming poems that she enjoyed sharing with those closest to her. Alma was always a hard worker and was employed as a real estate agent until she resigned to care for her parents whom she loved dearly until the Lord called them home.

On August 8, 2023, God saw fit to give Alma her eternal rest in Him.

Alma leaves to cherish her unforgettable memory: her sons, Scott Campbell (Mitzi Campbell), Greg, Chris and Trae Moore; one brother, Wayne Martin (Stacy Martin); a host of nieces and nephews; a very special friend, Mary Jayne; her beloved caregiver and companion, Michelle Howell and was preceded in death by her husband, William "Bill" Moore; her parents, Bruce and Helen Martin; her brother, Jim Hinds and her sister, Lou Ann Garner.
