“ I spent many a church supper sitting across the table from Alvin.... Often checking out the desserts to be sure there was enough of the things we liked! He always made me smile and his love for wife Lillie kept me in awe. A true gentleman who always had a smile for me, even on days I knew it was tough for him. Knowing he is reunited with Lillie will warm my heart.

I feel blessed to have crossed paths with him and have shared so many meals- even if he did manage to sneak a few desserts from me!

I will donate to Meals on Wheels in Coweta County in his honor.
