“ My Aunt Angie was also my godmother and God added more spice when he made her, which added heat to certain situations and relationships, but she loved so deeply and was deeply loved! She was a strong woman who raised 3 strong and amazing children, my awesome older cousins. I have a lot of special memories of road trips to visit her in Georgia, including getting my ears pierced when I was a little girl and Xmas at her house in Newnan when I was in college. Her zest and passion made her a fun person to be around, as depicted in her obit picture. I still remember her balling loving tears every time our visits were over and I was just as sad! I got to see her a couple times this year after my other Aunt suffered a stroke. Although I wish it was under better circumstances, it was nice to reconnect with her. I got to share the news that my husband and I were expecting our first child, Carolyn Rose, who was born 5 days before her 72nd birthday. She didn't get the chance to meet her in person but was so happy for me after her birth and loved seeing her pictures. She loved all of her children, grandchildren, and nieces and nephews so much!! She was taken from us so suddenly and too soon, but now we all have another guardian angel in heaven! I felt her looking down on me and Carolyn the night after she died. Until we meet again in heaven, I'll cherish the love and the memories!

Just found out about Angie's death. I was a friend of hers when we lived in Lima, Peru and attended school together. Please give me more information on her death and life so I can pass along to other alumni that knew her. She attended the Peru reunion in Ft. Layderdale and came bald from her chemo treatment. The last one she attended. We will miss her.
