

Ann "Angie" Elizabeth Kirby

April 3, 1921 - March 23, 2015

Ann "Angie" Elizabeth Bradley Kirby, age 93 of Sharpsburg, passed away Monday, March 23, 2015 at her home after a long illness and stroke.

She was born April 3, 1921 near Winder, Georgia. Ann was the second youngest and last survivor of ten siblings born to the late Elijah Marian Bradley and Susie Elizabeth Etheridge. Ann grew up on their farm. In 1939, she moved to LaGrange, Georgia to live with a sister. There, she met and married Gay Bolden Kirby, on December 7, 1940 until his passing in 1995. They were employed by Callaway Mills Company. She was preceded in death by her daughter, Wanda Lynn Kirby Prince.

Survivors include sons, Wyatt Bradley Kirby and Bobby Gay Kirby; five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Condolences can be expressed online at www.mckoon.com.

The family belonged to the Trinity United Methodist Church in LaGrange, GA. Ann and Gay joined that Church in the early 1940's and remained throughout their lives. Growing up in the depression era she had skills to "make do" during the War years, including making clothes, creating great food dishes during rationing, and creating entertainment. Ann was active in United Methodist Women, supporting community war efforts, civil patrol, church, schools, Scouts, local music bands, sports, and other organizations. She and Gay received awards from the Red Cross and Boy Scouts.

Ann was a consummate mother and homemaker. She loved good food and socializing, going to movies and church activities. She always had a wonderful smile that could light up a room. She was also highly skilled at sewing and embroidery, her favorite hobbies. She lived in Delmar Gardens, Smyrna, GA from 1995 to 2011.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, March 28, 2015 at 11AM in the chapel of McKoon Funeral Home 38 Jackson St. Newnan, Georgia. Rev. Shannon Karafanda and Rev. Rick Price officiating. In lieu of flowers the family requests memorial contributions to Cornerstone United Methodist Church, 2956 Hwy 154, Newnan, GA 30265 .

“ Wyatt, Thank you for letting me know about your Mom's passing. I know she was a great mother and did a wonderful job raising her children and was an integral part of the fabric of growing up on Lincoln Street and in Trinity United Methodist. God Blessings to you and Bobby and Families. I will see you on Saturday. Tom will be out of town, but I will be there.
