“ It was my routine on Thursday afternoon to come to the church to assist in the office. Barb always made it a point to come by to greet me and see if I needed anything. She was always so happy, so positive and so helpful. We became good friends.. Even in her illness she never lost her positive attitude. She always lifted MY spirits! Such a dear, dear person.

“ I considered Barb to be one of my dearest friends. I sure will miss her smiling face.
I met Barb in 2001 while helping with Bible School at church. She was one of those wonderful people that had such a remarkable personality.
I worked in the kitchen at church and was able to know Barb better. I encouraged her to quit smoking.
We learned we both enjoyed rhubarb, so I would bring in rhubarb desserts she enjoyed.
I will miss her.

“ Barb was such a caring person who always had a positive attitude and friendly question as to how are you doing today while asking with a smile and a giggly laugh. I never saw her unhappy during my tenure of working with her regarding building and grounds issues. She never said no if I asked her to take care of some issue that involved keeping the church spice and span. Such a sweet and caring person that will be impossible to replace.

“ Barb was a wonderful, sweet spirit. She always had a smile on her face and a pleasant greeting. Barb was never too busy to stop what she was doing and ask how you were doing. She will be sorely missed by her church family.
