“ There are no words to express my love and concern for each of the family at this time. You have been there for me through the years and I truly appreciate and love you all. We know God makes no mistakes and there is a reason for all things, but right at this time the hurt is great and only He can give you the peace that passes all understanding. What will keep us all going is knowing that one day there will be that great reunion in Heaven; no more sickness, no more seperation and no more sin. Praise the Lord. Just know I'm praying for each and every one of you. God Bless you all. Runnet
