“My Dearest Aunt Betty, I can't remember when you were not in my life. I could write a book about our relationship, all the wonderful things you taught me about life and how to be a young woman. You taught me the value of beautiful music, responsibility of driving, importance of speaking and telling the truth, about marriage, how important believing in God is, how to laugh and when to be serious. You were my go to person for every question and you were there to answer without making excuses. You teased me yet always showed love. I will forever have you in my heart and am so thankful I was part of this wonderful talented Craven family. Your sweetness, generosity, persistence and love of life was a lesson in what it takes to be a real person. You were and will always be my big sister. My heart breaks that I can't be there with you as you journey toward the light and into Gods arms. I know he will welcome you and enjoy your beautiful music that will be forever missed by all of us left behind. Your sweetness, compassion, thoughtfulness, and laughter will be missed. Be at peace my beloved Aunt Betty.
