

Betty Jo Yeager

August 12, 1923 - October 28, 2008

> Betty Jo Toll Yeager, age 85, died October 28, 2008 at her residence in Newnan from complications related to pancreatic cancer. A native of Morland, Kansas, she was born August 12, 1923 to the late Joe and Elsie Edwards Toll. She was a graduate of the Asbury Hospital School of Nursing in Salina, Kansas as she prepared for a career as a registered nurse. She was employed at Newnan Hospital during the years 1946 until 1972. At the time of her retirement, she was associated with Howell Industrial Clinic in Atlanta. She was a member of Newnan First Baptist Church. Mrs. Yeager is survived by her children, Gary Yeager of Rome and Linda Gray and her husband Wayne of Birmingham. Her grandchildren are Bryan Yeager, Gainesville, FL., Clay Yeager, Atlanta, Bethany Gray, Laurie Gray Trimm and her husband Kevin and Lindsey Gray, all of Birmingham,. Her great grandchildren are Audrey and Capp Trimm. Also surviving is her sister, Fern Kincheloe, 92, of Paso Robles, California and a niece, Nina Weber and her husband Walter. There is a large extended family of nieces and nephews of the Yeager family in the Newnan area who were so very helpful to Gary and Linda as their mother's health declined. A memorial service will be on Saturday, November 1, 2008 at 5:00 PM in the McKoon Funeral Home chapel with Reverend Jimmy Dale Patterson officiating. The family will receive friends prior to the service beginning at 4:00 PM. Interment will be later in the Morland Kansas Cemetery. Condolences may be sent to the family online at www.mckoon.com Those who may wish to honor Mrs. Yeager's memory may do so with a
