“ I'm truly sorry to hear of Corky's death. He was in a couple of weeks ago and we visited for about an hour. He told me he hadn't felt well while we spoke, but I had no idea his health was this bad . Corky was indeed a friend and customer and I am sorry to hear of his passing . Guy in the parts dept.

“ I am sorry sorry to hear about the passing of Corky. Chad and I grew up together and have been friends our entire lives. Corky was a great man that was never afraid to speak his mind. Everytime I saw him in the last 4 years he would always ask how my fighting career had been going. He will be missed by everyone. Pete

“ To the man everyone knew as Corky, but I called him Chief: My father-in-law was a man that spoke his mind. You always knew where you stood. He was great to ask his opinion about something because he would tell it like it is, with no beating around the bush. He loved his family, his kids and grandkids. I would call him often to just chat about hunting or football or just anything in general. He was up to date on many issues and would always have an opinion. He was one of a kind and that is what made him special. I will miss you Chief, God bless you and I will see you again someday. I love you, Your son-in-law. Jack

“ All my life he has been my Uncle Corky and I have been his "Plug Head" they say if he didn't pick on you he didn't like you. So I guess that meant I was his favorite. I spent many summers at his house. He played kick ball with us in the yard and got the biggest laugh ever when we played in the mud. But my greatest memory ever will be the day he practically ran down the hill just so he could see his grandson's faces when I dropped by to visit. I will miss you Uncle Corky! Love, Plug

“ Dear Rena: I cannot tell you how sorry I am to read about the loss of your husband. I will be praying for you and all the children. I am so happy that you have such a nice, large family to help console you at this tragic time. Please look me up in the local book and call me sometime. I suppose you heard about Eric's death that happened almost 4 years ago while at work. I just can't believe that they are both gone now. God Bless you all. Take care of yourself. love, Susan Weegar (Eric's ex wife)
