“ My heart is broken to hear the news of little Eddie passing away. I know he is in good hands as he is with our heavenly father and his grandparents and loved ones. Eddie....Cindy...Billy and the entire family please know you are in our prayers as days go by and that God will ease your pains going forward. Talk of him often and know that he is always with you. We love you all so much. Find peace..... Cousin Teresa and Adam and family

“ Dear Eddie, Cindy and Bill, I was shocked and saddened to hear that Little Eddie had passed away. Of course your hearts are hurting. Wishing you and all of the Georgia cousins peace as you say goodbye to another loved one. May Eddie's star shine brightly above, may his spirit dance with his heavenly family. Of course, he shall be with you always. Please accept our condolences. With love

“ Our hearts go out to the Wyatt family. So very sorry to hear about Eddie's passing. We have nothing but fond memories of our time spent with him. Eddie was a kind & thoughtful person, who added enjoyment to life. He could always make you smile and was a friend to all he met. Rather it be through a phone call or a visit, Eddie made a point to inquire about close relatives and family. We will cherish our memories of him. Today and in the days to come we will keep you in our thoughts and prayers. Meriwether, Barry, and Winston
