“ Losing someone we love and respect is never easy, but knowing that we were part of his life and had the opportunity to spend time together, knowing that he felt loved and respected by us, make us feel blessed and thankful for him, for his life, for those occasions where we were able to meet and share stories (and some guacamole!).

Our prayers go out to his family during this difficult time.

We will always love Cleve.

The Salazar family.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I too know the sting of death. The memories of good times will carry you thru these sad days. I hope that you can surround yourself with family and those who can build you up with the comfort you need. There is the best support found in God's word. Please read Isaiah 25:8. Death will soon be a thing of the past and there will be no more tears. Take care of yourself and let the scriptures fill you with hope and promise.
