“Charley and Sally were close friends to Marilyn and me for all their years in Tifton. We have missed them since their move to Newnan. We spend many happy moments together both socially and in the First Presbyterian Church. They were very gracious hosts in their wonderful homes in Tifton. They knew how to entertain with much grace.

In our church, Charley served with great decorum and concern as an Elder, Trustee and constant keeper of the grounds and physical plant. Both Sally and Charley lived as we should hope to live.

As we miss them, we extend our sympathy to their family.

“ Dear Jan and Amy,
It is a real privilege to have known Charlie and Sally Drexler. They were loved and cherished by First Presbyterian and the city of Tifton, and it was heart-breaking when we lost them to Newnan. Departing for them was extremely difficult and was only compensated through deep devotion for their family (an earmark of their Christian attributes).
We pray that their many loving memories will help to comfort you and bring warmth to your hearts (yours and ours), and while we ponder the occasion of an unfortunate double loss within such close proximity we have to echo, trust and agree with what Charlie would have said - "God doesn't make mistakes".
May God bless you real good and give you peace.
Love

“ Gene and I were back door neighbors of Charles and Sally When they lived on Sarah Drive in Tifton. They were wonderful neighbors and friends. Charles worked in their yard every day. He kept an immaculate yard and Sally kept an immaculate house. I have known Charles a very long time. We rode the same school bus to school and he and my sister, Linda, were friends in high school. We use to go over and visit them and sit on their beautiful sun porch and talk about old times. Sally would fill in at my bridge club from time to time. She was a great bridge player and always fun to be around. We were sad to see them leave Tifton but we knew it was for the best. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you. May our Heavenly Father give you comfort and peace. Gene and Pat Slack
