“ To David's Family and Friends: I was so sorry to hear of David's passing. I remember him from our Weight Watchers meetings and he was always an inspiration to everyone there. Some of us used to walk before one of the meetings in Newnan and I remember he would go part of the way with us, though he couldn't do the whole distance. My prayers go out to you all. He was truly a ray of sunshine.

“ Knowing David Powers has been the most wonderful experience of my life. Nothing could have ever had such an impact on my life as the friendship he and I shared. We were more like brothers than I could ever have imagined. For so long he & I would talk on the phone more than once a day & we only lived less than 12 miles from each other. David was special. You realized that as soon as you met him. Blue Eyes twinkling always asking questions about YOU not statements about himself. Always wanting to make you feel comfortable in any situation. A true Southern Gentleman and Miss Manners rolled into one. David you taught me so much & put up with so much crap from me. You were the wisest man I've ever known. (I wish we had kept that fortune cookie fortune for proof.) As I said on twitter: My rock has left this world to explore other parts of the universe. RIP #davidpowers You were loved by so many Robert

“ To Pete and to David's family -- I was blessed to get to know David in my Weight Watchers meeting for over a year. He touched so many lives in those meetings, always had a kind and supportive word for the others no matter how he was feeling, and his great insights that he shared were SO good that we came to call them "David-isms". We had stayed in touch since his recent move kept him out of our meetings for a while, and he also continued to chat with his old WW friends on our Facebook page. Lots of prayers from his friends were sent up during his hospitalization, and now the prayers are for all of you at this difficult time. David will truly be missed by many...
