“ *Dear Laura, Kelly and Family,
My condolences on the passing of your mother. I remember what a wonderful helper she was to me at Moreland Elementary School. If I ever needed an extra set of hands, I could always count on Deborah Kilgore to step in! While I know she wanted to be there to be close to you girls, I believe she had a love for helping all children and just enjoyed my crazy projects, too. For several years, even after you two were no longer in my class, your mom continued to be there to help with projects. One project she always enjoyed was creating tie-dye Tshirts. In fact, she even helped me out one year after I moved to Arbor Springs Elementary. She was a good friend to me during those years and I'll always remember her.*
