

Dena Basoria Osborn

October 31, 1908 - February 5, 2011

Mrs. Dena Callaway Osborn has gone home to be with our Father in heaven.

She was born October 31, 1908 in Sparta, GA into a family of 11 siblings.

Dena was employed by the Dempsey Hotel in Macon, GA where she later met her husband, Raymond Osborn, a CPA in Atlanta.

Dena's hobbies including sewing, cooking, bridge and telling stories about growing up in rural Georgia. Her family will especially miss those childhood stories and her wicked sense of humor.

Dena leaves behind a son-in-law and daughter-in-law, 7 grandkids, 12 great-grandkids and about 30 or so hearing aids.

The family would like to thank the staff of Savannah Court for their loving care of Dena for the last several years. We would also like to thank our dad, Dick James, for his devotion and care of our dear grandmother.

Online condolences may be expressed to the family at www.mckoon.com

“ I would like to express my sympathy in the death of Dena. She was in my Sunday School at Vineville Baptist Church before leaving Macon. I have very pleasant memories of her and her sister Gussie. Thoughts of you, Frances and Jim McNorrill

“ Aunt Dena was the joy of the family. She was always upbeat, laughing, telling jokes, and just a wonderful positive person. Grandma Alma just loved going to Macon and spending several days with Dena and Gussie. She still talks about their time growing up and the wonderful times they had. We also remember the Family Reunions and miss seeing everyone. Alma is the last of all the siblings. She is 97 and will be 98 on August 9th. We just took her to the Dr. and came out with flying colors. Thank you Dick and all the grandkids for all the care you gave Dena. Our deepest sympathy. Alma, Bill & Jackie Holsenbeck
