“ Looking at the Family you can clearly see the love of a man that has developed his love through to his wife, and children. I truly can see God's blessing on the family through those who survive Hawk. You truly have left a legacy which will support your love of Jesus by being a great family that pulls together as you were a great man. We hate to let you go however, we are aware you are out of pain and with your Lord. May the peace of God which surpasses all understanding spread over your family for years to come.
