“Pat, I heard of Don's passing from a friend of you two's having his obit framed. I am so sorry to hear of this. You both stand out in my memory as a lucky in love couple who were also hard working and giving. I used to watch you two working together at the apartments on Powell Place that you owned. I admired you both. There is nothing else that can be said other than I am wishing you some solace in the fact that you had such a love. Loss is something you feel only when you actually had something to lose.

“They just don't make men like this in today's world. Confident and caring an entrepreneur who enjoyed vast business interests and the joy of that which he started carrying forward to be a blessing in the lives of others. We have lost a true friend who knew how to chase life's rainbows while helping others find their pot of gold too. Love Boni & Joe

“I am so sorry to hear about your loss. It's been a pleasure working with him over the years and his smile always brightened any room he entered. His sweet disposition, charm and smiling face will be missed. God bless you and keep you during this difficult time. I am so sorry.
