“ In the last years of your life, you may have forgotten my face and who I am, you may have forgotten the years when you and daddy were raising me, my sister and my brothers, you may have forgotten how much we all love you, but I thank God above for giving me those memories that I will hold on to and cherish until I see you again in heaven. You are and were the best mother a child could possibly hope for and because of your love and guidance, I am the woman I am today.
I love you and miss you desperately.
