“Diann, I am so sorry to hear about Reagh's passing. I'm sure there are a lot of stories that have been told, and many more that will be told, about him. I have several myself but thought I would share this one.

About 25 years ago I went on a trip with him to the Bonnell plant in Carthage, TN. We left Newnan with Reagh behind the wheel of his pick up truck. When we got up to I-285 to go around Atlanta, he proceeded to get over in the left hand lane doing 55 mph, the speed limit. As most anyone that drives in Atlanta on I-285 knows, if you're in that far left lane you better be doing a minimum of 70 mph or you're going to get run over!!! And I mean this just about literally!! Well, he proceeded to sit in that lane just motoring along while people came around him on the right side, MY SIDE!!, and they were gesturing at me!!!! Now I do want you to know that the gestures were not friendly waves because there wasn't many fingers being used. When I suggested to Reagh that he might want to pull over and let these people pass he said (you know what he said here), I'm doing the speed limit. If they don't like it they can do exactly what they're doing now. Pass us. The hell with em. I guess the moral to my story is there was a way things could be done and there was Reagh's way. I'm going to miss Reagh's way!!
