“ Elizabeth and I loved to hug each other. She said I gave good hugs but it was she who gave the good hugs to me. It's hard to believe she is gone. She would often come out our door each Sunday and share words of love and encouragement. We are going to miss her! We are praying for each of you!

“ i was so sorry to hear of Elizabeth's passing but happy that she is out of her world of suffering.

Charles is my oldest living cousin (his mother, Lucille Holloway Gordon and my mother Mary Ruth Holloway Millians were sisters). Charles and Elizabeth's was the first wedding I had ever attended. I was six years old and was sooooo impressed. I played bride and wedding for weeks after.

I've tried to make it a point to go by and visit Charles and Elizabeth when I come home for Christmas each year. I am so glad that I did and have several nice pictures of them over the years. I'm attaching the one that I made December on December 29 2017. I believe that was the day after her birthday and Charles' birthday had been two days before.

Please know that all of the family are in my thoughts and prayers during this time of loss and transition.

“ Miss Elizabeth was a beautiful woman, Mother, wife, grandmother, friend and neighbor. I have known her since I could walk and talk and until they recently moved into a smaller home, they were our neighbors for nearly 50 plus years. Pam, Susan, and Chip, you are family to us and I can empathize with the pain you are going through and the joy of knowing she is with the the Lord. She will truly be missed!
