“ I am so sorry for the loss of your precious Mother my Big Sister Elizabeth (Teave) . McCormack . There aren't words to explain how much it hurts. When she got married and left home will always be with me. I grieved a long time missing her. I thought she stopped loving us. Of course she always loved us. Our family had a lot of ups and downs but the family dinners will always be in my heart. At time I look back at old pictures that I have of our family and try to hold on to the sweet memories that I can still remember. Please remember that I love you and will continue to pray for you Spencer, Diane, Stephanie, and Billy(Bill). With all my love Aunt Shirley.

Thank you my dear Aunt Shirley. I love you too Aunt Shirley. I too loved those family reunions and dinners we all shared together. The laughter, bickering, and love between us all is a life-long memory for us all.
