“ Dear Family of Elizabeth Muzio (Sister Liz as we knew her). Accept our deepest sympathy and prayers as you mourn the loss of your dear one. As missionaries serving in South Africa we were supported by Andie and Liz Mizio for many years. We enjoyed hospitality in their home when we visited Akron. Her smile and radiance in the Lord will always be remembered. As Pastor Harpool often said "We have not lost anything if we know where it". She is safe in the arms of Jesus. Be comforted and encouraged. Wilfred and Carol Matham

“ Miss Liz's favorite expression about things was "Oh, that is so wonderful". It did not matter how big or small a thing she was making the comment about. Her positive attitude really did make all things seem "wonderful"! All of us at Wesley Woods will miss her terribly.

“ Dear Family members of dear Liz Muzio,

I had the privilege of officiating at Andy's funeral in 2011, at Grace Bible Church, in Akron, Ohio. It was then that I traced Andy's life and what a life it was. I am now retired from ministry and living in Strasburg, Virginia. Liz and Andy were the real thing. They were genuine. They loved the Lord with all their hearts. They loved the church and I believe they loved me. I love anybody that loves me.

Liz was a very special lady... a one of a kind. She was always proper, always perky, always praising her God, always prayerful in all things, always performing acts of kindness for others, and always patiently waiting on the Lord for His directions in her life.

I believe she exercised the words of the great Methodist theologian, John Wesley, when he said: "Do all the good you can, in all the ways you can, at all the times you can, to all the people you can, for as long as you ever can." That was the ministry description of Liz Muzio. She did that as long as she could and God took her to Himself to reward her. May we rise up and call her blessed.

Liz and Andy had yielded themselves to God and wanted His perfect will. They were united in holy matrimony and lived together for 61 years. We will never forget their impact upon our lives. We rise up and call them blessed!

I just wanted you folk to know that heaven becomes more attractive to me every time someone I love goes there. I look forward to seeing Liz and Andy in heaven and rejoicing with all the saints, of all time, that Jesus Christ is Lord of All!

God bless you,

Sincerely in Christ, Jerry Harpool

To All of You in her family:

Liz was my neighbor across the hall from me at Wesley Woods. Liz was the same everyday and when I offered anything to her, she would say her favorite phrase, "oh my, isn't that grand." She was for real and wanted you to know that she belonged to the Lord and I already knew that. Her family was so kind to her and that made me happy. Part of her happiness came from also liking ice cream. Liz and I both loved our ice cream but I think she won the race. She will always have a special place in my heart and I do believe when I reach the gate of heaven, she will smile and say, "Did you bring my ice cream." She was a true love to me and you do not find many like her.. I pray the family will have the guidance they need at this time. Take care of yourselves and know she had many, many friends here at W. W.
