“ "Miss" Frances was lovely -- gracious and wise. I remember her time as magistrate judge. She was considered fair, just and compassionate. She was a kind person, and she will be missed.

“ I was so sorry to hear of Miss Frances's passing. She and my mom, Carolyn Pursley-Shell, had been best friends and neighbors on Spring Street for decades. It was always so much fun to listen to them chatter and giggle. They loved each other so much! Momma went to heaven on May 2, 2019, and now they are back to giggling again. I so wish I could have seen on that reunion! I love you Miss Frances and will always think of you with love. ❤️
