

Fred "Rick" Richard Reynolds

May 8, 1951 - October 26, 2021

A Celebration of Life for Dr. Fred Richard (Rick) Reynolds, 70, will be held on Saturday, Nov. 6, 2021, at 2 p.m. at Legacy Church Rockaway Road, Senoia, Ga., with Silas Martinez officiating.

Dr. Rick Reynolds passed away suddenly at his home on October 26, 2021.

He was born May 8, 1951, in Royston, Georgia, to Eugene Jackson Reynolds and the late Violet Lee (Appling) Reynolds, and spent most of his childhood in Covington, Louisiana. Along with his mother, Rick is preceded in death by his great grandchild, Caitlyn Braswell.

Rick is survived by his wife of 52 years Laura Joan (Hinton) Reynolds; two children Leah Shannon (Jonathan) Avigdori of Los Angeles and Richard Jackson Reynolds of Senoia; five grandchildren: Austin Reynolds, Chasity Reynolds, Lexi Reynolds, David Avigdori and Michael Avigdori; and three great grandchildren Caitlyn LeAnn (in Heaven), Calvin, and Liliana. Rick is also survived by his stepmother, Mae Bellew Reynolds of Gadsden, Alabama, and his parents-in-law Ray and Joan Hinton of Senoia, GA.

Rick and his wife Laura have owned and operated the Veranda Historic Bed and Breakfast Inn in Senoia, Georgia, since 2004. Dr. Rick Reynolds was also an ordained minister with the Church of God and formerly owned Paraclete

Counseling Services in Senoia. He previously served Clayton State University as Department Head of Developmental Studies, Guidance Counselor and Professor of Psychology.

Rick will be remembered by all who knew him for his powerful testimony; for living what he preached; for the empathy he showed his fellow human beings; and his tremendous love for his family. His memory will long be renewed by stories of his never-give-up attitude, and sense of humor.

Upon news of his passing, his daughter summed up the Father she knew by describing him as the "dearest, most precious father, husband, Paw-Paw, brother, uncle, son, boss, preacher-man, teacher, therapist and all-around most magnificent human... We loved him to the core."

“ Like all who shared friendship with Rick, I am so very sorry that he has passed on. Much too soon. To you, Laura, I send my love, and will contact you after the holidays for a stop-by visit. You probably don't know that I too am widowed now, with my precious Dale dying at the end of December. I have much to share about this first year, and some of it may be helpful to you. Grieve, heal, lean on those who love you and offer help. We know that God is good, and will sustain you, as he has me. My best, Barbara McDaniel Ray

“ When I had heard of Ricks had passing I was truly saddened. I've only known Rick for about 5 years but every time I saw and talked to him it was always truly a pleasure. I will miss seeing him at my stays at the Veranda. My heart goes out to you Laura, and I pray for God to give you the strength to get through this hard time. The Veranda wont be the same without him.

“ I knew Rick from our Clayton State days. He was a kind and thoughtful person. When we reconnected, after I retired and my wife and I became missionaries, he invited us to spend a night at the Veranda Inn with his compliments. Wish I had taken him up on it as now I will have to wait until we are both in glory to chat again. To the family: You were blessed to have him in your lives all these years. You have my heartfelt sympathy as you grieve your loss.

“ Laura, Shan, Richard, & Ramonda
At first disbelief smothered all words. Then a flood of memories surfaced & reality began to set in. While our family has seen far too little of each of you since our move from Waycross, time cannot dim the wonderful years of togetherness in Utah & Ohio especially. There is a bond & Rick was at the heart of it. His influence as a person, pastor, coworker, counselor & most of all a true friend is a combination I have yet to see again. Rick is in our hearts forever. Boundless love to you all
