Guy Smith Williamson was born in Atlanta, Georgia on March 16, 1927 into a loving Christian family. His parents were the late Walter G. and Karl Smith Williamson. In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by two brothers, Jimmy and Charles. On May 30, 1948, Guy married the love of his life, Judy Heaton. Their marriage has been blessed by three children, Lynn and her husband Carl Smith, Paul and his wife Isabel Zamudio, John and his wife Juliana Page. His children, six grandchildren, 9 great grandchildren and nieces, nephews and cousins were always the light of his family focused life. Guy was a man of great accomplishments; having been a scout master, earned a bachelor's degree in history from Mercer University and a masters and doctorate in theology from New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. He was an infantryman with the occupation forces in Germany after WWII. During the Korean Conflict he was a chaplain. Guy and Judy served 35 years as missionaries in Mexico and Costa Rica as professor, visionary, planner, pastor and friend. He expressed it this way, himself, "I had the privilege and the responsibility of standing before a group of disciples each day and teaching them the most profound truths available to mankind- those of the New Testament."

Guy was a wonderful husband, father, father-in-law, grandfather, mentor and friend. His family invites you to celebrate his exemplary life with them and the input his life has had on the kingdom of God on Friday, November 9, 2007 in a service of worship at 11:00 AM at the Central Baptist Church of Newnan at 14
