

Harold Lamar Nelms

September 28, 1945 - November 5, 2019

Harold Lamar Nelms, age 74, passed away Tuesday, November 5, 2019 in Union City, GA surrounded by family. He was born in Franklin, GA on September 28, 1945 to the late Harold B. Nelms and Lula Popham Nelms.

Lamar, as he was known by friends and family, was an avid antique car and hot rod collector and started the Mazzio Antique Car show in Newnan. Lamar was a jack of all trades and worked for Bonnell Aluminum, Meriwether Gas Company and Newnan Utilities. He also served his country in the United States Army.

Lamar was moonstruck at the Whitesburg Racetrack by the love of his life, Terri Eskew Cooper. He is also survived by his children, Megan Phillips, Trevor Cooper (Madeline); grandson, Cooper "little buddy" Phillips; sister, Lugene Burson and her husband Jimmy and by step children and grandchildren from his previous marriage.

The funeral service for Lamar is Thursday, November 7, 2019 at 2 PM in the chapel of McKoon Funeral Home, 38 Jackson Street, in Newnan with Pastor Jeff Smith officiating. The family will receive friends Wednesday evening from 6 PM until 8 PM at McKoon Funeral Home.

The family asks that anyone with a hot rod or rollback please come for the procession to the cemetery. For those wishing to bring food, please do so to Mills Chapel Baptist Church for the reception following the committal service at Forest Lawn Memorial Park. Condolences may be expressed online at www.mckoon.com.
