

Harry "Clay" Barber, III

September 19, 1964 - June 22, 2023

Mr. Harry "Clay" Barber, III, 58, of Newnan, Georgia, formerly of Birmingham, Alabama, passed away Thursday, June 22, 2023. He was born September 19, 1964, in Birmingham, Alabama to the late Harry Clainard Barber, Jr. and Virginia Hardwick Barber Herring. He was preceded in death by his father.

Clay grew up in the Cahaba Heights neighborhood of Birmingham, Alabama where he graduated from Shades Valley High School in Homewood, Alabama in 1983. He continued his education at Samford University in Homewood where he played baseball before graduating with a Bachelor of Business Administration in Finance with a minor in English in 1987. Shortly after graduating from Samford University, Clay married his wife Janet on June 6, 1987. Clay's professional life started at SOS Technologies where he worked with his father Harry before starting his mortgage company, ATC Mortgage.

In addition to his wife and profession, Clay had many passions in life. Clay was a devout Christian. He enjoyed life to the fullest, working and playing hard. Clay enjoyed shooting sports and was an avid hunter. He also enjoyed motorsports, from sports cars to 4x4 trucks, ATVs, even his trusty tractor for yard work. You could putt on the front lawn, just watch out for the Great Danes and other great dogs that were always by his side. Clay did not do anything halfway. If it could be done, then it could be done properly; all that it required was a little research and hard work. But perhaps Clay's greatest passion in life was his passion for helping others. Clay touched many lives through both his profession and his hobbies. Clay was the very definition of a good friend.

The funeral is Thursday, June 29, 2023, at 6:00 o'clock at McKoon Funeral Home, 38 Jackson St, Newnan, Georgia with Pastor Bryan Alexander officiating. “ I did not know Clay personally but I work with his precious wife, Janet. Janet is a wonderful nurse and dear friend to all that have the privilege of working with her. Her love for Clay and her fur babies was often shared at work.

I am so glad that I was able to attend the funeral and get to know a little more about the outstanding person that Clay was. The pastor did a beautiful job sharing the “life” of Clay with all of us in attendance. Even in death Clay has changed my life and has encouraged me to be a better person. I will work on my personal relationship to Jesus Christ and look forward to seeing Clay in Heaven one day.

We will surround Janet with love and hopefully be able to provide a little bit of comfort during this time of great loss. Love and prayers for all of Clays family and friends!

“ So sorry to hear of the loss of Clay. Looking at the pictures of him when he was younger as a little boy is how I remember him @ Philadelphia Baptist. Looks so much like his sweet Mama.

My thoughts and prayers will be with you all. 🙏🙏🙏❤️😭

“ *When Clay was younger (1980s), we went fishing in a lake across from his grandparents' home in South Georgia. He caught what may have been a record Bass for that lake and we put it in a #3 wash tub but it wouldn't fit ... hung out both sides!
We hid the tub out of sight behind the house so we could continue fishing the "hot spot".*

When we stopped for the day an hour or so later, Clay went to get the fish to show his grandparents, get pictures, and then to get it mounted. But there wasn't a fish in the tub.

We had looked for it a few minutes when his grandfather "Doc" came up. Clay told him what he was looking for. "Doc" told him he saw it and thought he'd be helpful, so he cleaned the fish he found. He then gave the fillets to Clay's grandmother to cook for dinner.

Clay's face went flush!
