“Ida- We are missing seeing you in our little Hall everyday. I hated that I couldn't take you to the grocery store more often. I just got so busy with school, life and my daughter. We sure do miss you and we thought of you like a surrogate grandmother! I know Dottie is very lonely without you. You make the best pimento cheese sandwiches! You were so active and went to the gym way more than I could do myself. Thanks for making us all laugh at my grandmother's birthday party. The next time I have a glass of white wine - I will drink to you! Tammy and Mary were very sad to see you in pain. We all were. You were a tough one! Love, Melody, Whitney and FiFi

“ Miss Ida was a very true Southern lady who was very devoted to her mother. She enjoyed the "entertainment" of Atlanta as it kept her active. Know it was a happy reunion when she arrived in heaven to be greeted by her parents.
