“ Donna, Susan & Families - so sorry to hear about Jean. Just wanted to let you know that I am thinking of all of you. Due to medical problems, I don't know if I can attend funeral. My thoughts and prayers to you, and may God comfort you and help you to find peace at this time. If they have square dancing in heaven, I know that the two of them and Johnnie and Bud are right in the middle of it. The four of them loved to dance.

Jean always had a smile on her face and polish on her nails. She was truly a fun character.

Love spending time at Aunt Jean and Joe's when I was little (except when uncle Joe would pop my toes). "Supper" was always at 5:30 every day!!

Homemade ice cream, fresh vegetables from the garden and the sound of the attic fan whirling in the summer.

I considered Aunt Jean Mama's best friend and I know how excited Mama was to see her walk through those pearly gates.

Will miss her dearly!
