“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to the Gangi family, who I had the privilege to know so many years ago as I taught the children at Orrs Elementary. I was deeply saddened to hear of Lucas' passing. It was a joy to teach him music during his early school years. Please remember that my thoughts and prayers will be with all of you.

“ I have only just received news of this tragedy, and my heart breaks. To my Aunt E, Uncle R, Matthew, and Amy, my love to you always xoxox To Lucas lovely wife, Krista, and their adorable children, my thoughts are with you all and I embrace you. To Lucas, you cheeky man, my fun loving cousin, and dear friend. We had so many hilarious times growing up :) I remember you as a newborn, a toddler, a younger brother to your siblings, and seeing you growing up into the lovely man you became. Seeing you as a Husband, Dad, and all the carefree joy in the world! Your spark, smile, and scense of humor were infectious and you will be greatly missed. Blessed be xoxo

“ Words will bring little comfort right now, but I pray that God's love consumes you and with time brings you peace and comfort. I met Matt and Luke briefly when answering a call at Matt's house a month or so ago. Those two made me laugh so much that evening! I could tell instantly they were part of a great family and are also great friends. Luke did all he could to make light of a not-so-fun situation for his brother; my guess is that he would want all of you to be positive also. I was saddened to hear of the accident over the radio as I drove in to work Thursday. I can't imagine what you are all going through right now. Please know that my family is praying for yours. Trust in God. No matter how much we don't understand, we have to KNOW that He knows what He's doing. Inv. Tiffany Grier & family

While we only had a relatively short time with Luke, he played an important role for our Inspection Services organization and he was a breath of fresh air in our Tyrone office. Our thoughts are with Krista and his children, and we will miss Luke greatly. Randy Berry Senior Vice President Operations & Services IronPlanet

“ Dearest Gangi family, Roger, Elsie, Matt and Amy: We were devastated to hear that such a bright light was taken from us; I remember the vivacity of stories about Lucas growing up alongside his cousins and was privileged to have met him on numerous occasions. “ I was driving home on the 14th of April and my heart was filled with excitement as I had just received word that my great friends had been blessed with the birth of 2 boys and a girl. The next day received word on the loss of a great friend that I had been honored enough to know for more than 15 years. The ironic thing is that the parents named their son Ian also. Looking at Life as a gift from God, is a lesson we often take for granted and is something we should be thankful everyday we get the chance to to serve him and be a positive influence on the time we have. We will all miss Luke and the best thing we can do is to bring out the best in his children and teach them the wonderful impact that their father had in his lifetime. Luke is a special person that will have the ultimate blessing. Heaven.
