“Lloyd & Mary Ella and to the family of Lunelle, I just read about the death of Lunelle, so sorry I did not get to the Funeral Home to see you during this sad time. May God give you strength and comfort during this time. You will be in my thoughts and prayers. Have a lot of fun memories of Lunelle and Lloyd when we went to Mills Chapel together many years ago. Love and Prayers Syble

“ Never forgot all the awesome toys Mrs. Nunn gave me when I was in the fourth grade at Arnco Sargent, toys that Rebecca didn't want any more. Rebecca asked another girl as well if she would like to have some of the toys but she said no with an attitude, so I took them all, Lol, I was so happy when I got home because mom was a single parent and could not afford to buy so many great toys and to see the joy on her face that someone would be such a blessing to her little girl. Thanks to a real Angle Mrs. Nunn ❤️

“ I remember sitting in her livingroom stringing buttons, catching lighting bugs out back, sleepovers on her pull out couch and feeling safe and loved at her home. I remember taking a ceramics class together when I was only a child...the talks we had in that little studio were the best. She was more than a great aunt she was one of my dearest friends and I love her so!
