“ Lynda was the oldest of a bunch of us baby boomer kids born in the post WWII days. She and I spent a lot of time on the phone reminiscing about the "olden days" over the last several years. There were so many many fond memories of our families and the silly things that we kids would get into. We always laughed a lot during those calls and they were a highlight for me. I look at her photo and remember those darling dimples of hers and how very pretty she was. Because of our shared faith I know we will see each other again in one big family reunion. I know how much her family meant to her and how very proud she was of her daughters and grandchildren. She will be terribly missed. My heart is deeply sad. My love and prayers go out and up for Lynda's beloved family.
