

Lynn McRae Hurdle

January 10, 1948 - November 16, 2018

Lynn McRae Hurdle, 70, passed away peacefully on November 16, 2018, after an extended illness. Lynn was born on January 10, 1948, in Eufaula, Alabama, to the late William A. Johnston and May Skelhorn Johnston. She was a member of the Eufaula High School graduating class of 1965. She attended Troy University, graduating in 1969 with a degree in Elementary Education. She was a proud member of and featured twirler with Troy State's Sound of the South Marching Band. She was a member of the Senoia United Methodist Church.

Lynn taught school in Opp, Alabama, and Newnan, Georgia, before following other pursuits. She also taught baton and dance in Opp and Newnan to an entire generation of young women and had a profound impact on their lives and families. Last January, several of Lynn's former students were so appreciative of her time with them that they held a birthday party in her honor. Lynn also had a successful real estate career. She had an eye for style and color, and her decorating talent and expertise was sought by individual clients and homebuilders. Lynn also flew for eight years as a flight attendant for ValuJet and then AirTran.

Her love of gardening was well known and the Senoia home she shared with her husband Jack, was a showplace. Her favorite role was being a loving "Gigi" to her four grandchildren. Her charitable endeavors centered on animal rescue and welfare.

The Memorial Service is on Monday, November 19, 2018, at 11 o'clock in the chapel of McKoon Funeral Home, 38 Jackson Street, Newnan, Georgia, 30263 with Reverend Ashley Jenkins officiating. The family will greet friends at the funeral home beginning at 9:30 am. “ I remember Lynn and our twirling days like it was yesterday. The contests, the parades, the football games, and of course those summer camps. I always remember Lynn being such a kind person and always always always so energetic. I'm so very sadden to hear of her passing. Annette called my this morning to tell me. Debbie, my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

“ Miss Lynn was an amazing mentor to young girls all over Coweta. She instilled Girl Power in us before GP was a trend. I am so thankful that I am one of her girls. She was so much more than a baton teacher. Baton skills were a bonus. I've heard it said the best gift a parent can give a child is the knowledge they are in Heaven when they pass. That's the last gift Momma L gave us all, that she is at the feet of Christ and we will be with her again.

“ Such a beautiful person is now with our Heavenly Father. She was such an inspiration to so many of us while we were growing up. I am so glad that we had a chance to spend time with her last year on her birthday. She was a like a mother to us during such a critical time in our lives. She taught us how to believe in ourselves and how to believe in others. We will truly miss you “Mama L!”

“ I’m so sorry to hear of Lynn’s passing. She and I taught school together at Fairmount in the 70s. She was a great teacher and always had a good sense of humor. I remember talking to her about being from Alabama. My most vivid memory of her is when she stepped in a hole on the playground and broke her ankle when we were having a student - teacher softball game. I am so sorry for your loss!

“ I was always so impressed with Lynn; the beautiful “older girl!” In that red majorette uniform with white boots, twirling away, marching in a parade or on the Eufaula High football field flashing a huge smile, she looked like a million bucks. Rest well, friend.

Beautiful , kind, patient , all the things I aspired to be as a young majorette! Lynn was awesome and as much as I tried , I missed a few high twirls, of which she never did! Wonderful memories and prayers for peace for everyone! Thinking of you all on this day of mourning the empty place in your heart, but wonderful memories that will forever live on💕💕

Lynn, Debbie and Wendy were my backdoor neighbors for most of my childhood. Lynn was someone we all looked up to. She is now at peace and living with Our Lord Jesus Christ! May He give peace and comfort to all of her family.

“ Lynn and I were classmates at EHS. We re-connected at our class reunion in March 2015. She was a joy to be around, a sweet spirit and remarkable woman. The world is a sadder place without her, but now she has gone to Heaven. My thoughts and prayers are with her family and friends.

“ I was shocked and saddened to hear of Lynn's passing. We were in a Bunco group together until I moved out of town several years ago. I enjoyed her quick wit and hearty laugh. She had a wonderful eye for decor, and her Carolina jasmine was a sight to behold when it was in full bloom on her archway. Lynn was a gracious hostess and the personification of a genuine southern lady. She will be greatly missed. Carla Cook Smith

“ Momma Lynn had a tremendous impact on me and many others that were fortunate enough to have been one of "her girls". The amount of time she dedicated to us was above and beyond. I didn't recognize her sacrifice at the time, but now I realize how much effort she put into not only the weekly (sometimes daily) lessons, hours of practice, recitals, competitions, choreographing, and traveling with us. Her quest for us to be our best resulted in several state and national championships. She taught us many life lessons along the way and was always there for us. The lessons went far beyond twirling and competing though. She taught us determination, work ethic, pride for a job well done, patience, and sportsmanship. I am honored to have been one of her girls and will always cherish the time I spent with Momma Lynn and the Georgia Classics.

My thoughts and prayers and with her family, especially Heather and Hunter.

“What a shock it was to read of Lynn’s passing. We have not been in contact with her for years; however, we remember her fondly from many years ago when she first moved to Newnan. She contributed much to the lives of all those she touched. Our thoughts are with you at this sad time.
