“ Mark and Ken,

As you know your mother was one of a kind. Thinking of her these past few days, three words seem to keep coming back to me that I associated with her: bold, adventurous, and laughter.

I always new were she stood on any issue and what topics to avoid when with her. She spoke her mind and never let anyone take advantage of her. A strong women. Must be a family quality as her sister, my Mom, has a bit of that too. Never the less a quality that was admired.

Aunt Blondie was always up for any adventure, even at the risk of bodily harm. The extreme lengths she would attempt for the perfect photo. Even if it meant trying to stand on the highest point of her car, that she could manage. Or finding a parking spot as close to the river as she could, even if she might have been trespassing, for a photo of the tall ships. We never knew how the day would turn out when on an outing with Aunt Blondie.

Aunt Blondie is one of the few people I know who always seemed to find something that made her laugh during most days and she like to share her funny playful side. The dancing, singing, moving Tigger toys, the talking/singing bass fish, the song “What Did The Fox Say?” Will always remind me of her.

I enjoyed the time I spent with her and will miss her.

May she and Rich be embarking on new adventures together.

“ Sister in law Marge was a strong woman who spoke her truth. Although it is a blessing that she no longer has pain it is a great loss to all who knew her. She will be watching over her loved ones. Carry on her strength and honor her memory. Love, aunt Jackie

“ Our sincere condolences to the DeCourcy family for your loss.

We first met Marge when she moved back to Bay City upon her retirement. She was a neighbor, dear friend, and confidant. Whenever my parents or I needed anything, she was the go to person, providing assistance, advice, and tools. We will never forget all that she did for our family. Her move to Sharpsburg left a void for us and in the neighborhood.

Rest in peace, Marge. You are missed.

*Love,
Elfriede Kuemmerle, Ron and Ruth Patch*

“ Dear Mark and Ken - I know that no matter how old your Mom is when she dies, your mom is your mom and it just leaves a hole. I am thinking about you guys and I am glad that you at least have each other right now. I know you are missing another loved one - but just think how happy Marge was to see him when she got to heaven!!
