“Bless Ms. Marion's sweet heart. She's has been a good friend of mine through the years and I could always count on a great conversation and haircut for the same price. She offered me vegetables from her garden when she has extra, she gave me beautiful roses that she grew. But with all this, a friendly smile and a welcoming heart. I shall miss her for sure, but I will rest knowing that she is with Mr. Robert once again and she has no more appointments to meet. The Brown/Turner families lost a jewel, but know she's in Heaven watching over each of you. God love that sweet lady.

“For the past two years I have so enjoyed seeing Miss Marion when I would take my mother-in-law for her hair appointment. She was always a bundle of energy, and I was looking forward to hear her Graceland stories as Elvis' birthday approached. I will miss my bi-weekly visits, and I know you will miss her every day.
