

Marion Stewart Robbins

June 10, 1940 - September 30, 2013

A lifetime of selfless devotion to caring for others came to an end on the morning of September 30, 2013 as Marion Robbins became an angel in God's Heavenly Kingdom. Marion Stewart Robbins was born June 10, 1940 in Boston, Massachusetts. She is survived by her children Craig Robbins and wife Catrina, Kathi Sturm and husband Marshall, and her brother Henry Genaske. Anyone having the honor of knowing and loving Marion was blessed to be touched and affected by her presence in their lives. She gave selflessly of herself and her time, and lived to only serve others and see the joy in their faces. Her pride and joy has for many years been her grandchildren: Brittani Robbins, Alex Upchurch, Jerrica Story, Travis, Ryan, Joshua, Kayla and Marshall Sturm II, and her great-grandchildren: Brian, Daniel, Corey, and Alanna Robbins. She regarded close friend's children and grandchildren as her own as well, lovingly being referred to as "Granny M". Condolences can be expressed online at www.mckoon.com. In lieu of fresh flowers, please send potted flowering plants to the funeral home—anyone close to Marion knew of her avid love for gardening, and her children wish to continue this practice to honor her memory. The memorial service will be held Saturday, October 5, 2013 at 5 PM in the chapel of McKoon Funeral Home with Pastor Greg Marsh officiating. McKoon Funeral Home & Crematory 38 Jackson Street, Newnan, GA, 30263 770-253-4580.

“What a shock to hear of Marion's passing. She was a friend from Mrs. Drowns pre-school. I have so many fond memories from school, church, Rainbow Girls, marriage, greats and grandchildren. She was wonderful at all she did and a loyal fiend. I will miss her and her stories of her family whom she loved deeply. My deepest sympathy to all of your, eternity has gained an Angle. Love Honey “Marion's brother, Hank, was my best friend growing up in Newton Highlands, Mass, from kindergarten until today, so of course I knew Marion very well - almost like my own sister. When we were kids we were all in the same church youth group and had a lot of fun together. Although I haven't seen Marion in 60 years or so, I remember her warm smile and personality. I am sure she will be sorely missed by her family, who are all in my prayers.

“ what a joy it was to know Marion. She was in my prayer group for about a year. We all prayed for her total healing and ultimately, she now has it on the other side. Marion was such a caring person. There seemed to be alot of people in her life whom she cared for so much. When Marion prayed, you could hear her heart as she cried out to God on their behalf. She was such a blessing to me as I would go to pick her up and take her to the doctor. We would always have prayer together and she knew that God was holding her so close to His bosom that she could hear His very next heartbeat Marion, we will one day soon have that big party we always talked about! What a celebration all of Heaven is having right now as you finally got to where you were going!!! You will be missed but I'll soon meet with you and join in on the celebration!!! Thank you Lord for bringing Marion into my life for such a time as this. Celebrating with you, Teresa Buckalew

“ We only met your mom once, when you and Marshall got married, but her warm personality and wonderful smile made a lasting impression. She made us feel as though we had known her forever. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. She will definitely be missed by all who knew her. Love you! Marriette and Gene
