“ I’m so sorry to hear of Alan’s passing. Allen was a fellow bus driver and we had many enjoyable talks hanging out in the cafeteria and break room at Newnan High while waiting for students. He loved music and attending concerts. Allen sent me the most beautiful card when my mother passed away. I’ll always remember how much his thoughtful gesture meant to me. Sincere condolences to his family.

“ And by the way, Allen could be crazy as a loon orrrr the most clear thinking person you would want in an emergency. I loved his nutty personality, fit well with mine. He was devastated when I finally got a girlfriend! Ha. He was used to he and I doing everything together. He had to grasp that I didn't want a 3 person date! He was so funny and I miss him. I have driven 50 mph on a winding road with him riding my tail, tapping my rear bumper with that horrible, loud (in a bad way,) white Plymouth Belvedere!!! Lol, biggest hunk of junk ever, but memorable! Everybody in Hueytown knew that car! Last thing, Allen in his youth could run like the wind! You would have never guessed it to look at him. I was skinny and fast, and if we sprinted I always had to struggle to stay ahead of him. Miss those days since it's been 44 years since I have walked, but I will someday, just not here it seems. I could keep coming up with stories. I went to dozens of concerts with him! We enjoyed our youth. Music was huge to Allen, for as long as I knew him. My big teddy bear-like friend, sweet as they come...He will be missed greatly!

“ Hi guys, hi Ann and kids. Allen was my best friend through high school and after. I have always hated that we lived so far apart after marriage. I got buried alive, bottom half of body not working, with Allen one side quit working, much harder than being a paraplegic! I loved my friend and miss him already. I pray he is waiting in heaven for me to join him some day! Love you all, will keep you in my prayers as you grieve. Sincerely, Perry Griffin

“In memory of our cousin, Allen. He was always the fun guy and cutup of all us cousins. Living in Bham, we didn't get to see him a lot after his stroke, but we always kept in touch by sending notes back and forth every week or so. You fought a hard fight, cuz, and we love you, Linda Hastings Love & Sue Hastings West
