“ I have such sweet memories of the Knight family at First Christian Church in Newnan. Bonnie and Dennis were children with us. Mr. Bob always made us kids laugh, and Mrs. Mary was such a Godly woman. I know she is wearing her crown in Heaven. Praying for the family at this time of loss.

Dear Family,

I still remember some great times we shared on Leigh Avenue.

It was always good to see them when they would visit from "the north country." I am so sorry we lost touch with them when they moved away from Coweta.

I know in my heart Mary is walking the streets of Gold - she was a very strong Christian woman and a devoted wife and mother.

I pray that God will give each of you the strength and comfort that only He can give to get through this difficult time.

Love,
Judy

“ *Mr. Bob, Dennis, Bonnie and family,
I was so sorry to hear about Miss Mary. I have so many kind and thoughtful memories of her from the time I was small. She was such a sweet, loving, generous and Christian lady and mother. She will really be missed. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers.*

“ I consider Mary as a 2nd MOM with many childhood memories. One such memory I still practice till today and every time I partake I will remember her. That memory is having peanut butter on toast dipped in freshly brewed coffee for breakfast. RIP Mike Windom
