Ms. Mary was one of the sweetest person I've ever had the pleasure to meet. She was always beautiful inside and out and I'll never forget her laugh. She also had the absolute sweetest voice ever and she taught me how to slow down sometimes in life and enjoy the small things. She truly was loved forever and always.

Cheryl, Gary and family, so sorry to hear of Mary's passing. I had the pleasure of spending some time with her, what a wonderful soul. May the memories of your times with her be held in your heart.
