“I just heard of Ed's passing today, and my heart goes out to the entire family. What a beautiful service you did in his honor. Our families had such a great time growing up together and we will always treasure the wonderful memories we have. Ed was loved by many, will never be forgotten and will always be in our hearts.

“ I knew Ed most of my life and most of his. He was a kind soul always with a twinkle in his eye. He had a contagious smile. Ed was a great athlete that never got his day in the sun. He enjoyed being outside. We all did. The first time I met Ed at 8 years old he was smiling. The last time I saw him at 58 he was still smiling. Our paths seemed to connect every few years since we were both 8 years old. I am sad to learn of his passing. My thoughts and prayers are with all of his family.
