I am so sorry for everyone's loss. I pray that the Lord will give everyone the strength that is needed in such times as these. Melvin and I grew up in the same hometown, but hadn't been in touch in years until a few months ago, in thank the Lord that our paths had crossed again. Go. Rest High on that Mountain. Brother.

“ Good bye my sweet, caring, gentle... and oh so funny Uncle. You will be missed incredibly by us all.
I'd give anything for one more warm hug, or to hear that chuckle that erupted into a belly laugh.
You were more than just family to Bobby and I , you were our dear friend.

“ Love and sympathy to Anna, Carlos, Ryan and the Hubbard family. I was fortunate to have Melvin as a childhood friend. I was blessed to get to see him when he came by my home with Lucille and Irene a year ago. He was always so kind to my mom (Evelyn). I will always remember his smile and laugh. He is in God's arms today. Calvin Hayes (nephew).
