“ *My heartfelt condolences for the loss of Monica. She was such a sweet woman. Unfortunately my only connection with her was during her visits at the Center. But I knew she was loved and cared about very much. It's nice to have family and friends for support but the greatest source of comfort comes from our God above who is the "Father of tender mercies" (2 Cor. 1:3,4). God not only wants to be a source of comfort but of hope. He promises that "he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore" * (Rev 21:4). Soon, no one will have to lose anyone ever again. I hope these verses bring a measure of comfort. May you find peace and well-being.*

“ Monica brought such wisdom, humor, joy, and love to her students and all those she worked with. Whether visiting her class, exchanging emails at school, or texting in the evening, I always knew Monica would be there to lend a helping hand and a kind heart.

I will miss Monica deeply but will carry what she taught me along with me each day as I greet my students. She is ever-present in my lessons and in my heart.

Monica spoke so often with pride of her family-you were the light of her life in every possible way.

My love to your family in this difficult time.

To the Lovett and McKnight families, words cannot express how saddened Sarah and I are to hear of the passing of Monica. Sweet, kind, loving, caring, tender hearted....so many words can be used to describe Monica. I think the most perfect word of all is giving. To her students, their families, her fellow teachers and staff, and to her family and friends, she has been an inspiration and a larger than life fighter of this dreaded disease that has touched the McKnight family way too often...I myself am in remission, and wonder why I'm here and someone as amazing as Monica is not...all I can think of is that she was so extraordinary that God needed her with Him. “ Ray, Julianne and Monica's entire family,
John and I are saddened to hear of Monica's passing. We did not know Monica personally, but knew all the McKnights, I have known Julianne since we were 5 growing up in LaGrange, From what I have read, Monica was a special angel on earth. She fought a long, hard battle with courage and in the end she won. Cancer may have taken her but She is at peace, no more pain and is starting the most wonderful class in Heaven for all the kids there.
Sending our deepest sympathy and love to Monica's family.
May God give you strength and comfort at this difficult time and in

I always think about you from time to time and seeing you a few months ago definitely put a big smile on both of our faces , like I'm literally in tears as I write this you were so sweet & kind and I'll never forget you & the things you taught me Monica Lovett💔💧😭😭😭🙏

“ Monica was so strong and courageous. Her depth of character should be something we all strive to attain. My heart is broken again and my prayers go out to all her family and friends. She was an inspiration to everyone who knew her and she made such a positive difference in the lives of all those she touched during her 40 years here on earth. She is in a better place now but she will be missed as we all wish she was still here with us. We will all be made whole again one day just as Monica was on Monday. We will fly to her and with her one fine day. Until then we must carry on and try and exhibit the love, devotion, and character that she possessed. My love to all the McKnight and Lovett family. Please let me know if I can do anything at all for any of you.

Although I know Monica and Matt's parents, I never had the pleasure of knowing her. My daughter, Karen Rust, filled me in on her journey, however.
