“ Awe Nancy (Granny) I will always treasure you and your memory. I will never forget how much you loved my Cyrus and how much you loved your children and grandbabies! You were such a beautiful woman inside and out! A true blessing in life! May your legacy live on through your daughter Judy and Jim and all the grandchildren. My thoughts and prayers are with Judy and James and the entire family. May God give them all grave peace and comfort knowing she is with him and made new and one day they will see her again. You touched so many lives Granny so you will be missed by so many and you are loved by so many people too. God speed till we all see you again!

My Aunt Nancy is in the dictionary, listed under, "True Lady". She was one of the best friends. She called me "Miss Chips" or "Chippy". My father, Billie Jack West, her oldest brother, called her "Moose". She taught me so many life lessons! Aunt Nancy was so giving, understanding, and caring! Wow, how I loved her!
