Nina Webb Nagel

Nina Lucille Webb Nagel, age 100, died of congestive heart failure on May 23, 2010 at Newnan Nursing and Rehabilitation Center. She was born in Wayne, Ohio on November 6, 1909 to Ford E. Webb and Lena LaVerne Knowles Webb. Nina graduated from Warren G. Harding High School in Warren, Ohio, in 1928 and worked for a time as a legal secretary while attending a local business college. She married Robert "Bob" Nagel in 1937 and they moved to Utah during World War II where she was a member of Valley Chapter #3, Order of Eastern Star, in Provo, Utah and active in the PTA and in their church. After Bob's retirement from Geneva Steel Company, they moved to southern California where she worked in cash control at a local department store and later was office manager of a dry cleaning outlet. In 1990 Nina and her daughter, Janet, moved to Georgia. She was preceded in death by her parents, her only sister Irene, and her husband. She is survived by her two children, Kay Nagel Shaffer (Richard) of Newnan and Janet Nagel of Lawrenceville; three grandchildren, Nina Shaffer Stubbs (Jay) of Newnan and Scott Shaffer and Katherine Nagel, both of Lawrenceville; three great-grandchildren, Mitchell, Jessica, and Ian Stubbs of Newnan; and several out-of-state relatives. Her family is so thankful for having had her in their lives for such a long time---a sweet loving little lady, now home with the Lord. The family is also grateful for the loving staff members at the nursing center who cared for her with such devotion. Cremation will be followed by a private memorial service in July in Colebrook, Ohio. McKoon Funeral Home, Newnan, GA, 770-253-4580 is in charge of arrangements and condolences may be sent to the family online at www.mckoon.com.

“ Dear Janet and Kathryn We were sorry to hear about your Mom and Grandma and our friend. My memories of Nina go back 53 years ago to our time as neighbors in Pleasant Grove. You are as you are because of your wonderful Mother. She will be missed by many here, but the reunion with your Dad and other loved ones will be great. May the love and prayers of many friends and family sustain you in this difficult time. We love you.
