

Paul "Herman" Oliver

November 9, 1948 - November 20, 2024

Paul "Herman" Oliver, Sr., passed away at his home in Senoia, Georgia, on November 20, 2024, at the age of 76. Herman was born November 9, 1948, in Sparks, Georgia, and was a longtime resident of Thomasville, Georgia.

He was an avid outdoorsman, a collector of guns and artifacts, and a well-respected land developer and general contractor. He was known for his shirt pocket full of cash, a calculator, and a Cross pen. Those who knew him and loved him knew that to "jump in for a quick ride" to check on a job site would likely turn into an all-day adventure. We always loaded up anyway.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Bessie May and Paul Harmon Oliver, and his siblings, Joyce Heald and James Oliver. Survivors include his children Robin Kinard (Tracey), Wendy Greene, and Paul Oliver; their mother, Joyce Oliver Clements; grandchildren, Madison Kinard (Chelsey), Madeline Gordon, Aubrey Kinard, Trenton Oliver, Colton Oliver, Grant Greene, and John Wesley Greene; sister and caretaker, Polly Estes, brother-in-law, Johnny Estes; sister-in-law, Diana Oliver; and many nieces and nephews, great-nieces and nephews, and great-grandchildren.

In keeping with Herman's wishes, there will be no funeral service, and his ashes will be scattered in a private ceremony. Donations in his memory can be made to Never Lost, Inc. at www.neverlost.org

“ I remember when I lived with Aunt Bessie. She always kept a pitcher of unsweetened Tea especially for Herman! For 🙏 when he would swing by for a visit on his way to work or on his way home! She was proud of her kids and grandkids! She always thought that Herman and Jimmy (Jimbo) worked to hard! Our prayers 🙏 are ❤️ with you 🙏 Robin, Wendy and family! Love ❤️ to all and God bless you ❤️ 🙏!
