“ Grandmama you are missed so much! We love you and know that you and Rita are holding hands watching Pop tend to the garden in heaven. Wow what a site I can imagine! I'm praying that Mom, Rhonda, and Roxanne will get through this knowing you are safe, healthy and happier than ever in God's hands. You have 4 daughters but you also have a grandson, Shane that you raised like your own. I pray that he can get through this knowing you are with his mother watching over him and his family and all of us. We will meet again one day! We love you...Melissa, Jason, Maddie and Abby ❤️

“ I am very sorry to hear about Pauline. I worked with her years ago at the Housing Authority and at the nursing home. She and her husband were great neighbors and they were very respected in the neighborhood. Pauline was a wonderful person and a true lady.

“ I am so sorry to read this. It breaks my heart. Pauline and I had so many good times together at work and outside work. I will always cherish our almost weekly dinners after work while Truett went golfing. We had a lot of talks about everything, good and bad. I love you, my friend. Rest in Peace!!!!
