

Promise Rebekah Whitley

March 30, 1978 - February 8, 2019

Promise Rebekah Whitley of Palmetto, GA passed away on Friday, February 8, 2019 at the age of 40. She was born in Raleigh, NC on March 30, 1978 to William and Linda Terrell of Four Oaks, NC.

An honors graduate of Duke University, she began her career teaching middle school language arts. She married and moved to Newnan, GA in 2003, where she worked as a substitute teacher. She later changed careers and became a nurse, completing her degree even as she bravely battled cancer.

Promise was well-known amongst friends and family for her extraordinary baking skills. She was an avid reader and also enjoyed needlework, traveling, and spending time with family. She especially loved spoiling her nieces and nephews at every opportunity.

She is survived by her loving husband, Eric Whitley, her parents, sister Amberly Strickland, four nephews, two nieces, and numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins.

A service to celebrate Promise's life will be held on Tuesday, February 12, 2019 at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Newnan at 11:00 am with The Rev. Hazel Smith Glover officiating. Visitation and a reception will follow the service at the church.

Condolences for the family may be left online at www.mckoon.com.

“ *I knew Promise through a social network rather than in person but she was such a kind, caring and wonderful person. She will be greatly missed in the group and my heart goes out to all who knew her.
Thank you, Promise, for all you brought to my life through our interactions. You will always have a special place in my heart and mind.*

“ I just found out that Promise passed away. I met her at the Disney Polynesian resort pirate excursion when we were little, maybe 8. We became pen pals when there was no email access yet and had been friends ever since.

We only were able to see each other in person one time after that when I was on a work trip to NC.

This is really sad 😞 I was just talking to her a few weeks ago about how we both bought DVC at Copper Creek and it was likely the same room purchase.

Aw Promise, I'm really going to miss one of my oldest friends.

Love you Promise, Curt.

“ Promise was unforgettable. She'll live on in our hearts forever, from her smile and her jokes to her devotion and dedication to her family and friends. Her bravery was an example to us all. My thoughts are with her family at this difficult time. --Jessie Strauss, Duke '98 (Promise's sorority sister in AEPhi)
