“ We are sadden by Ray's passing. He was always a gentleman and showed Christian values in his life. I remember his smile, his cars, his positive attitude and the advice that he shared with us. We will be separated for a short time and then we will be together again. May the Lord bless you and keep you and may His countenance shine upon you.

“ Mrs. Marie, Mike and Kim, Mr. Ray was a wonderful man. I remember the days on Sprayberry Street riding in the back of his El Camino. It is the good times and memories that you have to remember. You also have to know that he is in a much better place right now, and one day everyone will be reunited. I always loved the Noles family and will always love you guys. Please let me know if I can do anything for you. Your family is in my thoughts and prayers.
