

Raymond Joseph Grote

December 4, 1945 - July 15, 2021

Raymond ("Ray") Joseph Grote, 75, of Newnan passed away on July 15, 2021. He was born on December 4, 1945, to the late Raymond Joseph Grote and Rosemary Heaney Grote.

Ray was born and raised in Brooklyn, New York, where his large family gathered every Sunday for dinners and spent their summers at the family cottage on Breezy Point. His favorite summer job was valet parking at a local dinner club, where he got to admire beautiful 1950s automobiles. He attended college at what is now the University of Prince Edward Island, forming a life-long bond not only with friends, but also the island itself. After college, he was drafted and served in the Army during the Vietnam war. That love of family, his Country, vintage cars, water, and the outdoors would carry through his entire life.

He met his wife of 45 years, Debbie, while working together at Alexander's Department Store in New York City. Soon after their marriage, they moved to south Florida for Ray to pursue what would be his career with various national corporations in Loss Prevention. Ray and Debbie moved to Newnan, Georgia thanks to its proximity to the Atlanta airport, abundant, quiet land, and charming hospitality. In Newnan they would plant their roots and raise their family. Ray fell in love with country music and comically tried his hand at farming for a while. Ray loved Newnan, which he referred to as "the alternate capital of the South". He had a passion for supporting local businesses, teams, and Newnan High School. He was also a long-time member of St. George's Catholic Church.

More than anything, Ray loved his family. He supported them, challenged them, and fought for them throughout his entire life. He fought hard for himself, as well, in his final years.

Ray is survived by his wife, Deborah Grote; children, Raymond J. Grote, III (Alia), Thomas Grote, and George Grote; grandchildren, Sophia and Lena; brother, Gerard Grote (Mary); close family members Susan LaCroce and Bob LaCroce; sister-in-law DiAnne Calabrisotto (Joseph); brother-in-law Frank Chillemi (Sara); and many nieces, nephews, and their children all of whom he adored.

The family will have a memorial service Saturday, July 24, 2021, at 6:00 PM in the chapel of McKoon Funeral Home with Deacon Steve Swope officiating. The family will receive friends at the funeral home from 4:00 PM until the time of service.

Online condolences may be expressed at www.mckoon.com, where Raymond's service will be live streamed.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Ray's honor to Emory St. Joseph's Hospital by following with link below:

“ Dear Grotesque Family,

My name is Steve Friedenthal. Ray gave me my first job in Loss Prevention with GNC in 1989. I remember him talking about his young twins at the time. I thoroughly enjoyed working for him. He was a great boss, mentor and friend. I ended up leaving GNC, but continued my loss prevention career to this day. Ray played a big part in giving me the foundation for my career. We lost contact several years ago. Today I was thinking about him and decided to look him up, which is how I found out about his passing.

I apologize for the typo on your last name. Apparently spell check didn't like your last name and decided to change it. I'm not sure how to edit it. Embarrassing!

Steve Friedenthal - February 18 at 06:49 PM

Thank you Steve. This is his youngest twin boy, Thomas Grote. It's incredibly kind of you to think of him after all these years, and I just wanted you to know that your words meant a lot as he always prided himself on trying to be a great boss. Would love to connect with you on Facebook or social media. If you search my name and SpaceX, believe I should pop up, but hope to hear some stories from the old days sometimes if we are able to connect.

“ Thomas, my deepest condolences to you and your entire family! All of your family has been in my prayers. I fondly recall meeting your father and sharing a dinner meal with him back in 2018 when he met you during our benefit related employee meeting road trip! He was a gentleman and so easy to connect with and of course the stories he shared about you were fabulous and fun to hear! And I was especially touched when he shared a few “twin” helpful child raising tips after learning I was a mother to twins myself. Mostly I recall watching him with so much pride in his eyes and heart for you as he watches you presented in the meeting and helped educate the employees during the meeting. He definitely loved his family to pieces!!! Big hug, Ruth Britto-Herold, colleague from Diamond Offshore.

“ Ray came to pei in 1964. He and I were room mates during our junior year. We lucked out and got the biggest room on the floor of Marion Hall. One of my all time favourtie photos is of Ray stretched out on his bed with a beer in his hand. I back lit his bed with a lamp so it was almost just a silhouette. Ray was a business student and he enjoyed life on the campus. I believe there is a photo in our year book 1967/68 of him, Dave Burroughs and Claire Perry posing for a photo with a case of 24 Canadian beers.(We always bragged that Canadian Beer packed a bigger wall-up than our American neighbours.) I lost touch with Ray until our our fiftieth anniversary of Saint Dunstan's university. What a nice surprise that Ray came all the way from Georgia(?). Because his BMW needed repairs he stayed over for a few days so Ray and I got to hang out together on our Island. We visited North Rustico and have a great feed of clams at a small restaurant in the village. We walked the favourite island boardwalk and also visited one o the beaches. I am glad he stayed and we got to reminisce and tell tall tales about university days. Since then we kept in touch via facebook. I was aware of his illnesses and always admired his upbeat and cheerfulness at this time.

God bless Ray ; may you rest in peace with the One who sent you here.

Deborah Grote - July 22, 2021 at 05:04 PM

Thank you for sharing these memories Paul. He talked about university often with fondness and talking about the good times with his roommate Paul always out a smile on his face. Would love to connect with you, and know he would want you to know how much he appreciated your friendship.

“ We shared a lifetime of memories starting with Ma and Pa, all the aunts and uncles and us kids at the “Hole In The Head” Bar. Those were the days!

We grew up together and remained close through good and bad times. We always had what to talk about and could communicate with a look even in silence.

It will take a long time for me to hear the phone ring and not expect it to be Raymond.

Sharing in your loss and grateful for the memories.

So sad and sorry to hear of Ray's passing. I worked for Ray at Alexander's in the 70's, and we remained friends through the years. In later years, Ray would come down to Celebration, Florida to see the Atlanta Braves play, with one of his sons and we'd get together for dinner afterwards. Ray was a devoted family man and father. He loved his children very much and was very proud of them. I will miss our chat sessions very much. Prayers for all of the family...
