“ Dear Fred and Debbie, What a difficult road Reba had in this life. But her journey is ended into the beautiful realm of heaven for eternity. For many of her good years she sat near me in the Elim Choir. Always so neat and alert. Keep those good memories well above those times of suffering. We mourn with you and praise God for her release of sufferings. We love you. Prayers for you and the entire family.

“ As a former member at Elim Baptist Church, I remember Miss Reba well. I had a lot of fabric I couldn't use and gave it to her. She made beautiful clothing from it. One sheer red fabric she made into a beautiful ruffled blouse, a difficult feat! That was how Miss Reba was. What she received, she turned into something beautiful. No one's life is easy but my memories of Miss Reba are of determined and resourceful woman who made beauty out of the things she was given.
